

TV and Film Pub Quiz Round 1

ANSWER KEY

TV and Film / 10 questions / Mixed difficulty

1

In which year was Doctor Who first broadcast on British television?

Answer: 1963

Doctor Who first aired on the BBC in November 1963.

2

Who created the James Bond character in the original novels?

Answer: Ian Fleming

Ian Fleming wrote the James Bond novels that inspired the film series.

3

In Only Fools and Horses, which London area are the Trotters associated with?

Answer: Peckham

The Trotter family are closely associated with Peckham in south London.

4

What is the surname of the central aristocratic family in Downton Abbey?

Answer: Crawley

The Crawley family are the main aristocratic family in Downton Abbey.

5

At what London address does Sherlock Holmes famously live?

Answer: 221B Baker Street

221B Baker Street is Holmes's famous fictional address.

6

Which animation studio is known for Wallace and Gromit?

Answer: Aardman Animations

Aardman Animations created the Wallace and Gromit films.

7

Which actor plays Mr Bean?

Answer: Rowan Atkinson

Rowan Atkinson created and performed the character Mr Bean.

8

The original UK version of The Office is set in which town?

Answer: Slough

The UK version of The Office is set at a paper company in Slough.

9

Which British film about King George VI won the Academy Award for Best Picture?

Answer: The King's Speech

The King's Speech won Best Picture at the 2011 Academy Awards.

10

Paddington Bear originally comes from which country?

Answer: Peru

Paddington is described as coming from darkest Peru.